Below is a fraudulent e-mail message attempting to obtain personal account information from credit union members. If you receive this message, do not respond or click on the link provided in the e-mail message.

We recently have determined that different computers have logged into your NCUA account, and multiple password failures were present before the login. One of our Customer Service employees has already tryed to telephonically reach you. As our employee did not manage to reach you, this email has been sent to your notice.
Therefore your account has been temporary suspended. We need you to confirm your identity in order to regain full privileges of your account.
If this is not completed by December 16, 2009, we reserve the right to terminate all privileges of your account indefinitly, as it may have been used for fraudulent purposes. We thank you for your cooperation in this manner.
To confirm your identity please follow the link below:
